EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.-The Subscriber, Executor of the estate

of DANIEL ROBINS, deceased, will offer at Private Sale the following described Property: No. 1-A valuable FARM, containing 140 acres of land, lying near the village of Bloomsbury, in the Township of [sic: Bethlehem] Hunterdon, N. J. Said Farm has been heavily limed recently, and produces abundantly all kinds of grain.-There are about 130 acres of tillable land, the remaining 10 acres being covered with timber of the first quality, and very valuable in consequence of its lying so near the Bloomsbury Station of the C. Railroad. The Buildings on said Farm consist of a good frame Dwelling-house; Spring near the house; spring-house, smoke-house, a large frame barn, with stabling underneath; hovel, wagon house, etc., all in good repair. Also, a great quantity of Fruit, in all its variety.

No. 2-Being a timber lot, containing twenty acres of valuable timber, and lying near the public road leading from Bloomsbury to Little York, about two miles from the former and one mile from the latter place. This property will be offered all together, or in lots, to suit purchasers, and the best interest of the estate. The property No. 1 will be held at private sale until Tuesday, 30th of October next, and if not sold previously; it will on that day be offered at Public Sale, between the hours of 12 and 5 o'clock P. M.-Sale to take place on the premises. The lot No. 2 will likewise be held at private sale until Thursday the 1st of November next, and if not sold previous to that day, it will be offered at Public Sale between the hours of 12 and 5 P. M. Sale to commence at the house of Wm. Young, in the village of Little York.

Persons wishing to view the above described property can be shown the same by calling on Charles Petty, or Isaac Robins, living on said farm, and the timber lot will be shown by Sylvester Apgar, living at the saw-mill, adjoining said lot. Conditions made known on the day of sale.
JONATHAN ROBINS, Executor.
