From Below: "Greenwich Presbyterian Church baptism: Robins, Robert & wife, child's name forgotten, Oct. 1821
This would be their 4th son Jacob Sharps Robins. Margaret had a brother named Jacob and there are."

Jacob would be 7th son, or 8th child of Robert Robins and Margaret Sharps.

Now why so many children between baptisms? When Robert married Margaret Sharps, she was the daughter of one of the wealthiest landowners in Sussex county. They likely lived there early in their marriage. This area immediately bordered the part of Alexandria Township, Hunterdon County where Roberts father and grandfather lived. History of Hanover Township, Pennsylvania states that Robert moved into the area and started clearing land. It further states that Robert moved back to NJ about 1817. From the Vanover Book we learn that John Sharps sold to Robert Robins some land and a house for about $12,500 in 1817. Just prior to this move Robert is supposed to have sold 500 acres in Pennsylvania. History of Hanover Township further states that Robert Robins moved back about 1830.
