Subject: [Robbinsfamilysouthjersey] Hunterdon Co, 1835-1844
Date: Wednesday, January 04, 2006 7:52:27 PM

Recently I've been going through old issues of the Hunterdon Gazette out of Flemington, NJ. Below are some ROBINS-pertinent articles I came across out of the issues from 1835 to 1844. The issues go back to 1825 and up to 1866. I'll post more in the future.

Hunterdon Gazette
Flemington, NJ

28 Jan 1835

Died,
Near Mount Airy, in Amwell, on the 21st inst. Mr. Robert Robbins, at an advanced age.

WOOL CARDING.
THE subscribers respectfully inform the public that they intend to CARD Wool into Rolls this season at Sergeant's Mills, near Sergeantville. The Carding Machines are of the first rate, and will be attended by an experienced workman. Samuel B. Robbins will attend to the Carding himself, and will warrant every roll passing through his hands carded in the best manner, if the Wool is good and in good order. - They would also inform the public, that thy [sic] have a first rate PICKING Machine, which will Pick Wool in the completest manner, without waste. Persons can have their Wool picked and greased by finding the grease, and no extra charge. - Carding will be done at the customary prices of the country. The subscribers will take in Wool, and return it when carded, at the following places, one day in each week: -
At Rittenhouse's Store, Head Quarters.
Daniel Brink's, near Frenchtown.
Scott & Bateman's, Baptist-town.
Frnklin [sic] Gordon's, Swamp Meeting-house.
David Rockafellar's Store, near Boarshead.
Delilah Buchanan's Tavern, and at
Samuel B. Robbins's, near Mount Airy.
Persons will be particular in putting written directions on each bundle of wool left at the above places, so that no mistake may occur.
The Carding Machines are now in operation, and the subscribers are ready to card Wool at the shortest notice, as there is always a sufficiency of water in the driest season of the year.
Green Sergeant,
Samuel B. Robbins.
