CERTIFICATE AND RECORD OF BIRTH

It shall be the duty of physicians and professional midwives to keep a registry of the several births in which they have assisted professionally, which shall contain, as near as the same can be ascertained, the time of such birth, name, sex and color of the child, the names, residence, birthplace and age of the parents, occupation of the father and maiden name of the mother, and to report the same within ten days to the department of health. (Section 1237, Chapter 466, Laws 1901, as amended by Laws of 1903.)

For every omission of any person to make and keep the registry of * * * * * births required by the preceding sections, and for every omission to report a written copy of the same to said department of health, within ten days after any birth * * * * * provided to be registered, and for every omission to make the report of any * * * birth, * * * the person guilty of such omission shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and, in addition thereto, the offender shall be also liable to pay a fine of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in the name of the department of health of The City of New York, before any justice or tribunal in said city having jurisdiction of civil actions. (Section 1239, Chapter 466, Laws 1901.)
