MORE ROBBINS HISTORY: - Although very incomplete, the following is an excerpt taken from the Robbins Bible Records. -- SINCY ROBBINS with seven sons from Ireland came to America and settled in Weathersfield, Connecticut. Some of the family moved to New Jersey, from where some of them moved to Pennsylvania. The names of these sons were known to be; - WILLIAM, VINCENT, JOSHUA, JOHN and JOSEPH ROBBINS. Joshua Robbins was the one who married Jane Dildine, who was the mother of Rachel Robbins, whom Thomas Faus married as his first wife. (From Minnie Faus Rosebush), a granddaughter of Thomas Faus and Rachel Robbins. The following was obtained --- JOHN DILDINE was a private in the Revolutionary War and he is our Revolutionary War Ancestor -- John Dildine was born about 1760 and died in 1820. He married Mary Rosencrafts on the 7th of February. These were the parents of Jane Dildine, who was the mother of Rachel Robbins. -- The Dildine family were of French ancestry and Samson Dildine settled in Green Twp., Sussex county, New Jersey. He married Martha Hunt, from what is now Lawrenceville, New Jersey. The children of this union were - Abigail, Uriah, Samuel, John, Richard, Thomas and Sarah. The first three mentioned were soldiers in the Revolution, and took part in several general engagements. Ralph's picture is in the History of Sussex and Warren Counties, by Snell on page 438.
