Note: It would appear that Martha Reeves delivered about 1,053 babies during her Midwife career.

Among the births - there appears to have been about 12 sets of twins. - 3 of the sets born during the year 1812.

MARTHA REEVES, Midwife,
of the County of Cumberland, New Jersey
And Her Record Book of Births (1818-1831) *

Taken from the Vineland (Cumberland County, N.J.) Historical Magazine - July 1939 - Oct. 1939 - by Emma M. Reeves.

"Martha Reeves Record Book is in possession of Mrs. Henry S. Garrison of Bridgeton, N.J. who very kindly granted permission for its publication. The little volume is 6½ x 8 inches, of hand made paper and seemingly stitched by its writer into a book of thirty six leaves counting the covers, the outside front cover being reckoned page 1. Pages 70, 71 and 72 are left blank, as is page 5. The book is dog-eared, and has been much mended, but is in excellent condition considering it was used for over thirteen years.

Mrs. Reeves was born April 9, 1760, the daughter of Cornelius and Ruhama (Sheppard) Austin, and married, when not yet eighteen, Thomas Reeves' son John, fifteen years her senior, their license being taken out Nov. 19, 1777. In this, her name is given as "Marthew" Austin, in token of her father's disappointed hopes, or error on the part of a clerk.

John Reeves died and was buried August 30, 1811; whether necessity forced the widow to take up nursing then, or whether the death of the daughter Mary released her later, is matter for surmise. She survived her husband for twenty one years, dying August 1832.

For a woman whose work took her continually into the homes of her neighbors, and always at times which would make her gratefully remembered there is a strange lack of information to be found regarding Martha Reeves.

Save what may be gleaned from the record of her work, the only light thrown on her life comes from the will of her husband in his provision for "my daughter Mary who has been for some time afflicted with fits."

This shadow over her days suggests that Martha may have bone quietly and efficiently about her duties, too much absorbed in them - and her own family problem - to provide anecdotes to be savored by later generations.

(Signed) Eleana J. Darling

* It should be noted that, (on page 4) that the record begins in January 1801 and ends on January 9, 1833.
