

Descendants of Jesse Everitt

Generation 1

1. JESSE¹ EVERITT was born on 19 Apr 1775 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. He died on 26 Oct 1845 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. He married CATHARINE ANN CRAMER. She was born on 01 Nov 1785 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. She died on 03 Jun 1859 in Hunterdon Co., NJ.

Notes for Jesse Everitt:

The birth date for Jesse Everitt has been calculated from his tombstone inscription which states he died 26 Oct 1845 at age 70y6m7d.

Jesse Everitt's parents and his relationship to other Lebanon Twp. and Tewksbury Twp., Hunterdon Co., NJ Everitts are as yet unknown. On 12 Jun 1819, John and Mary (Apgar) Everitt sold Lebanon Twp. land to John Kreemer, James Ramsey, and Joseph Everitt. The deeds situate the land near Jesse Everitt (Bk.29, pp.603, 626, and 650). Jesse Everitt had apparently moved to Tewksbury Twp., for also on 12 Jun 1819 Jesse and Catharine Everitt of Tewksbury Twp. sold Lebanon Twp. land to John Tiger of Lebanon Twp. The deed states this was the same land purchased by Jesse Everitt from Robert L. Linvingston, situated on the southerly side of a mountain in John Everitt's lot and continuing to land John Everitt sold to James Ramsey (Bk.29, p.520). The 1830 and 1840 Lebanon Twp. censuses list Jesse Everitt. In 1830, the household of Jesse Everitt, 50-60 years old, and a female 40-50 years old, contained four males 10-30 years old and three females 0-30. In 1840, Jesse and his wife's household included two males 20-30, and two females 10-20.

The Last Will and Testament of Jesse Everitt of Lebanon Twp., written 4 Oct 1845 and proved 13 Nov 1845, names his wife, Catharine, and children Elizabeth, John, and Asa. The last two were named executors of his will.

Notes for Catharine Ann Cramer:

Catharine Everitt's birth date has been calculated from her tombstone inscription which states she died 3 Jun 1859 at age 73y7m2d.

Notes for Lewis Van Blarcom:

The following appears on the Findagrave site for Lewis Van Blarcom: "Civil War Union Army Officer. Captain of Company C, 15th New Jersey Volunteer Infantry. On Aug. 25, 1862, Mr. Van Blarcom enlisted as first lieutenant, Company D, Fifteenth Regiment New Jersey Volunteers, and for meritorious service he was promoted in June, 1863, to captain of Company C. This regiment was a part of the First New Jersey Brigade, which formed a part of the Army of the Potomac, First Division, Sixth Army Corps. Capt. Van Blarcom was in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, December, 1862; second Fredericksburg, at Salem Heights, May, 1863; Gettysburg, July, 1863; Rappahannock Station, November, 1863; Spottsylvania, May 8, 1864. In this last engagement he was wounded and captured by the rebels, and had his leg amputated by them. After remaining in the hospital for ten days, he was carried to Richmond and placed in Libby Prison, where he remained until Sept. 12, 1864, when he was exchanged and placed in the hospital at Annapolis. He received his discharge from service on Dec. 19, 1864, and returned home. After his return to Newton he resumed the study of the law, which he completed, and was admitted to the bar as an attorney at Trenton, at the June term in 1865, and as counselor at the June term in 1868. After his admission as an attorney he began the practice of law in Newton, where he has successfully practiced his profession since. . . . He was appointed prosecutor of pleas by Governor Randolph, March 25, 1869, and discharged the duties of that office with acknowledged ability and justice for a term of five years. Capt. Van Blarcom is, politically, a Republican, and leading and influential in his party in Sussex County. . . . He married, Aug. 17, 1871, Mary, daughter of Dr. Alexander H.
