
Descendants of Unknown Everitt

Generation 1

1. UNKNOWN¹ EVERITT .

Notes for Unknown Everitt:

No documentation has yet been found to establish, with any assurance, the identity of Unknown Everitt. Several researchers claim this Hunterdon Co., NJ Everitt clan was descended from Richard Everitt of Jamaica, N.Y. Since these claims seem based on circumstantial evidence, the family history offered here begins in Alexandria Township, Hunterdon Co., N.J., at what was known as Everitt's Mill, later renamed Everittstown by Major David Everitt, son of Samuel Everitt, Sr.

Wills, Letters of Administration, and Inventories at the N.J. State Archives show that on 6 Jan 1783, Samuel Everitt, Sr. was granted administration of the estate of William Everitt, who died intestate. Samuel, however, died shortly after writing his own Will (1203J), dated 10 Sep 1783. Administration of William's estate then fell to Hugh McAllister and Christopher Johnson on 16 Dec 1783 (1204J). Deed records from 1785 reveal that William's property was divided among his heirs and purchased from them by David Everitt. Among William's heirs cited in these deeds were Priscilla (wife of Hugh McAllister), Rachel (wife of Josiah Beakes), Martha (wife of Nehemiah Howell), Elizabeth (wife of John Palmer), and Abel Everitt (Bk.16, pp.134-140). All of whom were William's siblings. David ran into financial difficulty and eventually moved to Ohio.

The following history of this Alexandria Twp. Everitt family is based on "Recollections of Baptisttown and Vicinity," by Jay Bee ("Hunterdon Independent" of 29 Jun 1894); "The Everitt Family," by William Wilson Everitt (housed at the Hunterdon County Historical Society, Flemington, N.J.); census records; birth, marriage, and death records (from the State Archives in Trenton, N.J.); and, anonymous postings of unknown reliability on the L.D.S. Internet site (for the descendants of Abel and Sarah Everitt, John and Eleanor Everitt, and William and Almira Everitt).

Notes for William Everitt:

William Everitt died intestate 1793 in Wantage Twp., Sussex Co. Administration of his estate was granted to Morrison Beardsley and wife Millicent (she signed the document "Melesent Everet"). In his 1783 will, Samuel Everitt instructs that his son, William, will inherit "all that farm on which he now lives which I purchased of Timothy Abbit containing one hundred and fifty acres of land." William sold his inherited property in 1788, at which time he may have moved to Sussex Co., though a William Everitt appears on the 1790 Warwick, Orange Co., NY census. The census states William's household included 7 males and 2 females. William is absent in 1800, but the Warwick census then lists Melicent Everitt and shows only 1 female under 10 years old, and 1 female 45 or older. The 1810 Warwick census also lists Milecent Evrett, whose household included 2 males 16-26, 1 male 26-45, 1 female 10-16, and 1 female 45 and older. On the same 1810 census page are listed Richard Welling and Richard Welling, Jr. Only a Samuel Everett appears on the 1820 Warwick census, and he resided near Thomas H. Welling and Thomas Welling.

The impression left by census records is that William and Millicent Everitt moved from

Generation 3 (con't)

Hunterdon Co. in 1788 and settled in Warwick, Orange Co., NY. Between 1790 and 1793, William moved to Wantage Twp., Sussex Co., where he died in 1793. The absence of any males with Millicent in 1800, or any other Everitts in Warwick that year, suggests her sons may have settled in Wantage Twp., Sussex Co. It is known that William and Millicent's son, David, returned to Hunterdon Co. after his father's death, marrying Sarah Smith there in 1803.

An anonymous Family Group Record posted on the LDS site states William and Millicent (Welling) Everitt had five children: David, Josiah, Samuel, William, and Sibel. The 1790 Warwick Twp. census shows William's household contained 4 males under 16, and two females. (Also indicated are 3 males over 16, one of whom would have been William.) The LDS source offers the birth and death dates only of Millicent, and of sons David and Josiah.

William Everitt and Millicent Welling had the following children:

 - i. DAVID⁴ EVERITT was born in 1779 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. He died on 03 Jan 1875 in Springport, Cayuga Co., NY. He married Sarah Smith on 14 Oct 1803 in the Kingwood Baptist Church, Hunterdon Co., NJ. She was born in 1782 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. She died on 02 Aug 1844 in Springport, Cayuga Co., NY.
 - ii. JOSIAH EVERITT was born on 23 Oct 1780 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. He died on 05 May 1862.

Notes for Josiah Everitt:

A Josiah Everitt appears on the 1830 Stillwater Twp., Sussex Co., NJ census. Josiah's household included three males between 0-15, and one female 0-5. Josiah was 30-40, as was his wife. This Josiah may be William and Millicent Everitt's son, but it is not certain. No other Josiah Everitt appears on Sussex Co., NJ or Orange Co., NY censuses until the 1850 Warwick Twp., Orange Co., NY census, which shows 70 year-old Josiah Everett living with the family of Jno. and Mary Wood. The next household belonged to Sam'l C. and Clara Welling. In 1860, 80 year-old Josiah Everitt, born in NJ, was living with the family of James and Mary Burt. They lived near John and Mary Wood.

- iii. SAMUEL EVERITT.
 - iv. WILLIAM EVERITT.
 - v. SIBEL EVERITT.
6. ABEL³ EVERITT (Samuel², Unknown¹) was born on 16 Mar 1762 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. He died on 19 Apr 1858. He married Margaret Beavers, daughter of Joseph Beavers and Ann Clifford, in 1782. She was born in 1774. She died after 1833.

Notes for Abel Everitt:

The 1850 Kingwood Twp., Hunterdon Co., NJ census lists an 87 year-old Abel Everitt living in the poorhouse of Aaron and Mary Johnston. This Abel was, presumably, Samuel and Elizabeth Everitt's son, who was born 16 Mar 1762.

Notes for Margaret Beavers:

The Last Will and Testament of Margaret's father, Joseph Beavers, written 22 Dec 1815 and proved Jan 1817 lists his children, including Margaret. Joseph Beavers instructs that the money bequeathed to Margaret "be kept in the hands of my executors hereafter named and put to interest for her support in old age or as she may etz[?], this to prevent her husband from getting any part of it." Also referred to in the Will is Margaret's daughter, Milley. The Will lists as witnesses Jacob Fitzer, Marther Everitt, and John Garrison (Bk.3, p.87). Joseph Beavers died 20 Dec 1816 and is buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich Twp., Warren Co., NJ.

In his 1948 "A History of Colonel Joseph Beavers," Harold Alfred Sönn writes that Margaret (Beavers) Everitt "was probably born about 1760-1762," and although her "death and burial records are not known," she "was living in 1833 since Stephen Gano, executor of Colonel Beavers estate, made payments to her on that date" (p.143).

This Abel might be the Abel Everitt who married Brigit McMurtry and moved to Ohio.

A NJ deed dated 5 Apr 1806 (Bk.15, p.60) records the sale by Jonathan and Charity Everitt of property in Kingwood Twp. to Hugh Menaugh. The deed states the property was purchased by

Generation 4 (con't)

Samuel Everitt Sr. from Timothy Abbott, was then inherited by Samuel Everitt Jr., and upon his death a 2/9 share of the land was conveyed to Jonathan Everitt, son of Samuel Everitt Jr. Hugh Menaugh married Jonathan's sister, Elizabeth Everitt.

Jonathan and his family moved to Philadelphia by 1814, for a NJ deed dated 17 Dec 1814 (Bk.23, p.391) indicates Charity inherited some of her father's land and sold it to her brother. The deed identifies Jonathan and Charity as "of the City of Philadelphia." The 1820 Philadelphia census shows a Jonathan Everitt living in the North Mulberry Ward with his wife and three males and three females.

Daniel Everitt, a descendant of Jonathan Everitt, has granted permission to use his extensive and documented research on Jonathan and Charity's children in this history.

Burial was in Easton Heights Cemetery. The informant for the certificate was R. R. Pittinger of Easton. (Certificate No. 96970)

- xiii. FRANCES MUN EVERITT was born on 23 Oct 1831. She died on 08 Oct 1834.

14. DAVID⁴ EVERITT (William³, Samuel², Unknown¹) was born in 1779 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. He died on 03 Jan 1875 in Springport, Cayuga Co., NY. He married Sarah Smith on 14 Oct 1803 in the Kingwood Baptist Church, Hunterdon Co., NJ. She was born in 1782 in Hunterdon Co., NJ. She died on 02 Aug 1844 in Springport, Cayuga Co., NY.

Notes for David Everitt:

In a 28 Oct 1994 letter to Scott Holmes, Alex Everitt, a descendant of David Everitt, wrote that David "moved to Union Springs N.Y. about 1824 to work on the Erie Canal. He died there at age 91, in 1875. He had 5 sons. Three of them stayed in N.J. Abram was a state senator in N.J. from Perth Amboy. William and Elijah (mine) married the Moore sisters and settled in Hackettstown."

Kingwood Baptist Church records show that David Everitt married Salley Smith 14 Oct 1803. David and Sarah had at least the following children: Abraham, William, James S., Millisent Ann, and Elijah. David's daughter, Millisent Ann, died 18 July 1838 at age 24y11m3d. Elijah's and William's death certificates identify their parents as David and Sarah.

Since David's daughter, Millisent Ann, was buried in N. Y., David and Sarah must have moved to Springport, Cayuga Co., N. Y., before 1838. They appear on the 1840 Springport census with one male (born between 1820 and 1825) and one female (born between 1810 and 1820). An older male, 40-50, also lived in the household. Although his identity is uncertain, this male is probably David's son, James. David lived near a William Vansickle and a Catharine Vansickle. In one of his Hunterdon Independent columns, Jay Bee states that John and Lavina (née Thatcher) Roberson had two daughters, Sarah and Catherine, who married Vansyckles. On 8 Aug 1815, Sarah Roberson (15 Mar 1796-20 Aug 1887) married William Vansyckle (27 Dec 1789-8 Aug 1872), and on 16 Dec 1804, Catharine Roberson (26 Jan 1785-22 Mar 1895) married John Vansyckle (b.20 Dec 1761). One of John and Catharine's daughters was Lavina Vansyckle. Concerning William and Sarah Vansyckle, Jay Bee writes:

They were among the first settlers in Cayuga Co. Mr. Vansyckle rode on horseback from N.J. to Cayuga Co. in the year 1815. His wife followed him 2 years later. When she arrived she found it a forest. At the time of her decease it was highly cultivated. . . . She united with the First Presbyterian Church of Union Springs in 1821. . . . William and Sarah Vansyckle had 10 children born to them: John, Catharine, Lavina, Abraham, Sarah A., Margaret, Garret, Thomas, Moses R., and William H.

According to Jay Bee, William and Sarah Vansyckle's daughter, Catharine (22 Jul 1818-8 Dec 1841) married James S. Everitt (19 Apr 1810-17 Jun 1866) and had one daughter, Millicent A., who was born 18 Apr 1841. After the death of Catharine, James S. Everitt married Lavina Vansyckle (b.2 Nov 1820), daughter of John and Catharine Vansyckle. (The relationship of John Vansyckle to William Vansyckle is unclear.) Jay Bee writes that Lavina first married John R. Powers and then on 18 May 1853 married James Everitt.

Generation 4 (con't)

James Everitt was indeed David and Sarah's son. James and Lavinia (as her name is spelled on censuses) lived in Springport and the 1860 Springport census shows David living with James and Lavinia and their children. James died 17 June 1866, and David is seen with Lavinia and children in 1870. (The 1850 census also seems to show David with James and Lavinia, but the census-taker's writing creates ambiguity.)

Another member of this Everitt clan moved to Cayuga Co. Elliott Storke, in The History of Cayuga County: 1789-1879, writes:

David Everett, from Hackettstown, N. J., commenced business here April 26th, 1864, as a partner with his uncle, J. S. Everett, who commenced business in August, 1848. July 26th, 1869, he bought his uncle's interest, and has since done business alone.

This David was surely David and Sarah's grandson. The 1850 census shows William and Sarah Ann Everitt with children Mary J., William M., David, Ann, Elizabeth, and James. David was born c. 1841. He cannot be found with the family in 1860, but the 1870 Springport census shows a David Everitt (29) from N. J. married to Millicent A. (29) of N. Y. (David is identified as a merchant, as his uncle James had been.) David's wife was surely his uncle James's daughter, Millicent Ann, who was 9 in 1850 and can be seen with James, by then a widower, on the 1850 Springport census. (James's first wife, Catharine, apparently died during or soon after Millicent's birth.)

Tombstone transcriptions for Thompson Cemetery in Springport, NY, indicate David Everitt died 3 Jan 1875 at age 96. His birth date has been calculated from tombstone dates, as have the birth dates for Millissent Ann; James S. and his wife, Catharine; and, for James and Lavinia's sons, James and Abraham.

Generation 5 (con't)

Notes for Margaret Gaston Everitt:

The 1830 Hardwick, Warren Co., NJ census lists 40-50 year-old Willson Hunt and his household, which included 2 males 5-10, 1 male 20-30, 1 female 0-5, 1 female 5-10, 1 female 20-30, 1 female 30-40, and 1 female 40-50.

The 1850 Frelinghuysen Twp., Warren Co., NJ census lists 53 year-old Samuel and 47 year-old Margaret G. Mayberry with Mary C. (8), John C. (6), Anna E. (3), Margaret A. (16), Martha L. (13), Euphemia E. Hunt (20), Martha E. Hunt (17), and Alexander E. Hunt (15). The Hunt children were surely Margaret's by her first marriage to Willson Hunt. The two older Mayberry children, Margaret and Martha, were most likely Samuel's by his first marriage.

By 1860, Samuel and Margaret Mayberry moved to White Rock, Ogle Co., IL, appearing there on the 1860 census with Martha C. (25), Lucilla (23), Mary E. (17), John C. (16), Anna E. (13), Phebe L. (28), and Mary A. Everitt (38). Samuel apparently died between 1860 and 1870, for 67 year-old Margaret Mayberry and her 26 year-old son, John C., appear on the Rockford, Winnebago Co., IL census.

Notes for Samuel Mayberry:

According to Kathy Mayberry's Internet site, "John and Charity Mayberry of Warren County, New Jersey," Samuel Mayberry married three times: first, to Abigail Hunt (1804-1825); second, to a Nancy (1800-1838); and, third, to Mrs. Margaret Gaston Hunt. She lists Samuel's children as "?Abigail Ann Mayberry, ?Phoebe L. Mayberry b ca 1832 NJ, Martha C. Mayberry b ca 1835 NJ, Lucilla Mayberry b ca 1842 NJ, Mary E. Mayberry b ca 1843 NJ, John C. Mayberry b ca 1844 NJ, Anna E. Mayberry b ca 1848 NJ." Martha Gatson Everitt, mother of Mrs. Margaret Gatson Hunt, left a Last Will and Testament in which she names a deceased daughter, Nancy Mayberry, who left daughters Margaret A. and Martha L. Mayberry. (The Will also lists daughter Margaret G. Mayberry, wife of Samuel.) The 1850 Frelinghuysen Twp., Warren Co., NJ census shows Samuel and Margaret G. Mayberry. Among those listed in the household are 16 year-old Margaret A. and 13 year-old Martha L. Mayberry. Margaret and Martha moved to White Rock, Ogle Co., IL with Samuel and Margaret and appear there on the 1860 census.

Based on this evidence, Elijah and Martha (Gaston) Everitt's daughter, Nancy, is tentatively entered here as one of Samuel Mayberry's wives.

Abigail Mayberry (4 May 1804-9 Aug 1825) and Nancy Mayberry (25 Dec 1800-31 Mar 1838) are buried in Knowlton Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Warren Co., NJ, and identified as wives of Samuel Mayberry.

Notes for William Moore Everitt:

In his "The Story of Hackettstown, New Jersey, 1754-1955," J. Harold Nunn offers a commentary on the Moore and Everitt families, with especial focus on William Moore Everitt. Nunn states that at the age of 23 William "was commissioned a Lieutenant in Correll's Engineers (Civil War) but upon the sudden death of his father he was obliged to stay home and he did not serve." Nunn further offers that William studied civil engineering and, working for Mr. Noble, a surveyor for the Morris and Essex Railroad Co., "helped survey for the railroad between Washington and the Delaware Water Gap." William later served as "an engineer in charge of building the Bloomfield branch for the railroad company" and served as an agent in Morristown and Hoboken. Nunn writes that when "the railroad first came to Hackettstown in 1854 [William's] father Mr. William Everitt was the first agent here for a short time." According to Nunn, William Moore Everitt "was active in getting the original brick school built on Washington street and was a member of the first Board of Education." Other positions held by William were Mayor of Hackettstown, President of the Board of Health and of the Hackettstown Electric Light Co., director of the Hackettstown National Bank and of the Hackettstown Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

William M. Everitt's death certificate states William was born 15 Apr 1838, the son of Wm. Everitt and Sarah Ann Moore, and that William was married at the time of his death on 30 Jul 1913 at age 75y3m15d in Hackettstown. The informant for the certificate was Mrs. William Everitt of Hackettstown.

J. Harold Nunn states that William M. Everitt married Matilda Sletor of Easton, PA, and had a daughter, Virginia, who married Maurice Johnson. Matilda Sletor was William's second wife, for a NJ marriage record documents that William M. Everitt married Alice Van Horn on 1 Jan 1862. (Another entry in the marriage records states William and Alice were married 31 Dec 1861 [AH 90].) James P. Snell's "History of Warren County, New Jersey" contains a biography of T. S. Van Horn which states that Alice Van Horn married William Everitt of Hackettstown and that Alice died 1 Sep 1879. The 1870 Hackettstown, Warren Co., NJ census shows William, a "station agent," married to Alice. Living with them were James and George Everitt, and Wm. Skenk, a telegraph operator. The 1880 Hackettstown census lists William M. Everitt, a widower and station agent. Living with him was his sister, Mary Jane Goble, brother James, and a servant, Catharine Cummins. William appears with Matilda and daughter Virginia from 1895 to 1910 on the Hackettstown censuses. The 1910 census-taker states William had been married twice, and that Matilda had had two children, only one of whom was alive.

Notes for David Everitt:

states that "David Everitt, from Hackettstown, N.J., commenced business here April 26th, 1864, as a partner with his uncle, J. S. Everitt, who commenced business in August, 1848. July 26th, 1869, he bought his uncle's interest, and has since done business alone."
