

cy Garrison married Albert Boyle, of Walnut, Kan., and has two boys and one daughter; names, Aaron, Clyde and Bessie. Albert is a printer and they live in Olympia, Wash. Sarah M., second daughter, married a man by the name of Elmer Berry, and they live in Sparta, Wis.; they have but one child named Carl. The husband is in the railroad employ. Benjamin married Matilda Vannemaker and they have a large family—ten in number. Their names are, Joseph Frederick, Lulu May, Owen, Franklin Paul, Ruth Nancy, Lola Elmira, Homer Orrin, Lucile; the names of the other two are not known. This son Benjamin is a farmer and lives near Walnut, Kan. Frederick is married and has one child. William, son of J. T. Garrison, is single. The youngest son, Albert, married Nancy Kimball. They have one little girl named Hazel. Albert lives on the "old home" farm near Walnut, Kan.

John Park, second son of J. R. P., died single at the age of twenty-one. Ura S. died in childhood from whooping cough contracted on the way moving to the west.

Charles Ewing, third son, married Rachel Ann Jones, of Courtland, Ind., and to this couple were born four sons and one daughter, viz.: Willard, Ida, Perry Franklin, Charles Elmer and Columbus Ray. The two eldest died in childhood. P. Franklin married for his first wife, Nellie Smith, and to them were born one child (dead.) His second wife was Louisa Miller, of Columbus, and to this union there are two girls, Mary Rachel and Ruth M. P. F. is a carpenter and contractor and lives in Danville, Ill. Charles E., second son, is a machinist by trade and lives in Toledo, Ohio; was twice married; his first wife's name was Mary Shipman; second wife's name was Etta Richardson. He has one child by Mary, name, Ellen Moor, and a son by Etta, present wife, named Richard Elmer. Columbus R. is single. He joined