CORONER GRAVES, held an inquest in Middlefield, on Thursday last, on the body of a boy named Melville White, aged eigh years. New Hampshire Election

An election for Governor and Legislature, was held in New Hampshire last Tuesday.-The returns which have reached us indicate the election of Nathaniel B. Baker; democrat Governor, by about 3,000 majority; and majority of democrats to the Legislature.

ORIGINAL "TAIL."-We publish on our first page, a very interesting original tail" entitled the "Woodland Sylph." It is given in the words of the Author, verbatum, et punctuatim, et spell-at-em. We are sure it will be read with great interest.

Mr. Meagher has been lecturing in San Francisco, California, to large houses. He has been invited by both branches of the Legislature to lecture at the Capital.

New-York during Mr. FILLMORE'S Administration, for goods not on the manifest, were fined $15,000—one $5,000 and the other $10.000.

The Washington Star says that the three citizens of Washington who are persuaded from motives of humanity, to become sureties for Chaplin, have been sued, judgment obtained against them, execution issued and levy made. It says it has heard of contributions solicited by Abolitionists and of money paid in Scotland and elsewere for the Chaplin fund and asks: Where is it? Who has it? Shelby Parker, David A. Hall and William Blanchard, of Washington city, and the sureties above alluded to. It asserts that none of the money raised north and abroad have reached them.

More Custom House Seizures.—We learn that officers of Customs have made another seizure of smuggled goods at various stores in the lower part of the city, which amounts, in the aggregate, to nearly $100,-000, and which were brought across the Atlantic in British packets. It said that scarcely a steamer arrives at this port from Europe, but the revenues of our Government s extensively defrauded by parties succeeding in getting ashore quantities of very valuable goods, free of duty. It is thereforeimportant that Custom House officers exercise their powers in a most stringent manner, when the guilt is fastened upon persons engaged in the illegal trade. N. Y. Times.

WELL SAID.—A Senator (says the New York Times correspondent) complimented Gen. Housten to-day on his courage and honesty in opposing the repeal of the Missouri prohibitation. "I claim some honesty," said the gallant old General in reply, "but no courage. Courage would have been necessary to enable me to violate my convictions of right-not to follow them." Nobly said for the hero of San Jacinto.

The Baltimore American gives some statissics connected with the hide and tallow trade of that city-business which was commenced about a year ago by about thirty of their butchers, and for the first year has yielded a handsome profit. During the year ending on the first of the present month which were rendered and sold six hundred and seventy-five thousand pounds of tallow twelve thousand hides, and upwards of twenty-three thousandhorns. The expense of conducting the concern is very light. -During the past year but two men were employed for the whole work. The amount of coal consumed was but twenty-seven tons.

har About a week ago, the wife of a gendeman living in the castern part of the city, presented birn with a baby which is regarded a "perfect little wonder." It is a boy, still living, apparently in good health, and when born weighed just one pound. Its first bed was made on a common sixed dinner plate. The parents are very proud of the little fellow and have had his deguerrectype taken. Half of the women in town have been to see bim and the other half are getting ready to go. Daylon Gazette. HEAVY SENTENCE. - Rowland, A Smith was
