The Dominion government will let he contract in a day or two through the Department of Canals at Ottawa for the foundation of the new government elevator to be constructed at Port Colborne. It is expected the foundations will cost about $50,000 The new elevator will have a capacity of 2,500,000 and will be one f the finest on the entire chain of lakes. Its construction is due to the desire on the part of the Dominion cabinet to increase the movement of grain by the Canadian route. Noted Adirondack Hotel Man Selected to Make the Run Against Senator Malby-Mr. Holland Was in the Congressional Race Two Years Ago.

The Democratic Congressional and enatorial conventions for the Twenty-sixth and Thirty-second districts respectively, were held in this city vesterday afternoon. There was a small attendance made up of local Demo-crats. The only Democrat present crats. The only Democrat present from out of town was P. H. Kissane, of Malone. The Congressional convenion was called to order by John Hannan, a member of the Congressional committee. Daniel W. Mulligan was elected chairman and Leo Frank secretary. Henry Holland, of Ogdens burg, was nominated for Representative in Congress and the clerk directed to cast a single ballot for the convention. Two years ago Mr. Holland was the Democratic nominee. The old Congressional committee with the addition of Thomas Arbuckle, of Essex, was continued and the chairman and secretary authorized to fill a vancancy should it occur. The convention then ıdiourned Immediately after, the Senatorial convention was called to order by J. E. Kelly. P. H. Kissane was elected chairman and Leo Frank secretary. Apollos A. Smith, the noted hotel keeper of the Adirondacks, who is popularly known as Paul Smith, was placed in nomination and the clerk lirected the cast the ballot of the convention for him. Mr. Kissane stated that Mr. Smith is popular in Frankin county and that he is 79 years of age, and he did not know if he would accept the nomination. The convention decided to nominate him any way. The chairman and secretary were authorized to fill the vacancy should the nominee decline, J. A. Finnegan and G. F. Darrow, of St. Lawrence, and F. W. Ferrell, of Franklin, were appointed nembers of the Senatorial committee. The customary speeches and resolutions were omitted and there being no further business the convention adiourned. Those present were R. J. Donahue, J. M. Wells, T. J. Whalen, James E. Kelly, Ethan Hammond, E. P. Lynch, E. P. Kingsbury, Leo Frank, John Hannan, D. B. Lucey, E. B. Capron, Henry Holland, D. W. Mulligan and P. H. Kissane, of Malone. The dual convention was the quietest the party has held in a long time, as is evidenced by the fact that no reference what-ever was made to State or National

FATALITY NEAR MALONE.

One Man Killed and Five Injured by Collapse of Scaffold-A serious accident occurred late Thursday afternoon, near Mountain View on the Mohawk & Malone railroad by which one man lost his life and five others were seriously injured. At the time of the accident, six men were working on a scaffold on bridge No. 110 and the underpinning gave way, allowing them to fall a distance of about twenty feet. Demos Kay, of Herkimer was killed outright. The body of one man, whose name cannot be learned is said to be in the quick sand and may never be recovered. John Willis, of Herkimer, had his upper jav he abdomen and back. John Smith of Montreal, had his legs hurt and was probably injured internally as he s unable to speak above a whisper. Poel Prozaring, of Herkimer, had both legs injured at the knees. The remaining men, who were injured are Poland-ers and unable to speak. The injured men were taken to Faxton hospital, Utica, yesterday morning. John Willis, a mason and the foreman of the gang, said: "We were working about 7 o'clock by lamp light, and I noticed the lamp shaking. jump. MACHINE-MADE BARRELS.

Labor-Saving Methods Now Employed in Northrup's Stave Factory.

Labor saving machinery has been nstalled in H. D. Northrup's stave factory and the barrels are now made by mechanical process. The working force of coopers has been cut in half last evening's attraction at the opera and it is expected that the output of house and a crowded house witnessed the factory will be considerably increased when the operatives become thoroughly conversant with the new machines. Formerly all the work was done by hand, but with the new machines the only part that is performed by hand is hooping the barrels after they leave the machines. The new mahines installed consist of a windlass, setting up machine, tresser for tight-ening the staves, a champ and working-off machine and two patent heaters. The daily output of the factory at hat between 300 and 400 will be turned out when the new machines are worked to their capacity.

A fortunate circumstance has put me in possession of over one thousand bottles of fine wine from one of the most noted wine cellars in this country, consisting of Port, Sherry, Catawba, Claret, Concord and Deleware. They have a rich body, fine bouquet and are as clear as crystal. To move them quickly have made lower prices than have ever been given on such
