

FOOLS NO LONGER.

Sober Second Thought Laughs at the Idea of War with Germany.

JINGO TALK FAST COOLING OFF.

Secretary Bayard's Head Thought to Have Been Level, After All.

WHITNEY'S COUP ISN'T SO POPULAR.

The General Disposition Among Members of Congress Is to Go Slow.

War talk of the jingo style at Washington seems to be rapidly cooling off, the sensational reports of insults to the American flag and outrages to American citizens not having been yet confirmed. The general opinion now is declared to be that the whole thing has been a tempest in a teapot.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, January 29.—The Samoan furore, which nothing else aggravated so much as the published letters of Secretary Whitney, asking the State Department to define its policy, has cooled down considerably, and there is now evident a disposition to wait further information and see if, after all, there is cause for war talk, and if the country has not been making a fool of itself for the last week or two, in assuming on very small grounds that there was cause for war between the United States and Germany.

There is no further talk of the resignation of any member of the Cabinet. Mr. Whitney has put himself on record as being entirely opposed to Secretary Bayard in this question, but this is not the first time the young New Yorker has been opposed to the mature publicist from Delaware, and the latter looks upon the antagonism of the former with a great deal of equanimity, believing that he knows better than Mr. Whitney the ground upon which he is treading, and that when all the facts are known, and all of the agreement between the United States and Germany and Great Britain brought to light, the public verdict will be in his favor.

JINGO TALK ALREADY COOLED OFF.

The general disposition among members of Congress is to go slow. Upon the spur of the first reports there was a great deal of jingo talk about war. That has all cooled off, and the coup of Secretary Whitney does not get near so much applause as it would if it had been accomplished a week ago.

Hon. John D. Easton said today to the correspondent of THE DISPATCH: "I don't see how anyone can form an opinion on the information we have before us. Of course, it looks as though it were a very important matter, but the autonomy of the Samoan group should be preserved, but just how far the agreement between the countries involved goes in that direction, I have no means of knowing. It would seem from the reports that Germany subjects have been guilty of outrages against the natives and against the American flag and American citizens, but we do not know what the German Government is responsible for them. In fact, we are very much in the dark in regard to the entire question, and cannot reasonably be expected to reach any intelligent conclusion until we are better informed."

A TEMPEST IN A TEACUP.

Hon. Thomas M. Bayne expressed himself in a very similar vein, going somewhat farther touching the bone of contention. "It seems, in its most serious phase," said he, "to be something more than a teapot. The islands have a very small area, not capable of affording subsistence to more than a few thousand people, and of very little importance, either to the United States or any importance to them as a coaling station. We can get plenty of coaling stations without them, and we ought never to have got ourselves into the middle. Of course, if outrages have been committed against the flag and against American citizens, we should and will demand reparation, and Germany will do the proper thing without any coercion. As to the Monroe doctrine, that is so much of a humbug, in view of existing facts, that I do not see how anybody can lug it into this question. We are ready to go to war with a foreign country for attempting to set up its rule over a few little worthless islands in the South Pacific, thousands of miles distant from the nearest point on the coast of the United States, while we recognize the domination of a foreign power over Canada, and treat with her and wrangle over international questions with Great Britain about her."

TIME FOR COMMON SENSE.

"I think it is about time there should be a little common sense into our international policy. If it is to be shaped by maudlin patriotism such as has lately been exhibited in the treatment of some diplomatic questions, we shall soon get our fingers burnt on account of something like this Samoan question, that is of little or no importance to the people of the United States."

A number of obscure and doubtful points in the Samoan complications are explained by statements from Secretary Bayard. Mr. Bayard says that Germany has given this country no cause for war; that our flag has not been insulted or American property destroyed, and that the whole question is, shall this country assert its independence of Samoa by force of arms, if need be, against German aggression? As this involves the question of peace or war, the determination of which resides with Congress, the whole subject has been referred to that body, the President not feeling authorized to take further steps which might precipitate hostilities.

THEY ARE INDIAN GIVERS.

Finlay Trying to Recover the Money It Paid to Manufacturers.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.—FINLAY, January 29.—The Wetherald Wire Nail Mill, employing 150 hands, shut down today pending the decision of the courts, on a suit begun by the syndicate which paid Wetherald a bonus of $25,000 to locate his establishment in this city, to recover the amount of the bonus. The syndicate claim that Wetherald has not established such an institution as was agreed on when the bonus was offered, accepted and paid, while the nail mill maintains that it has not yet had the time in which to fulfill the conditions of his contract and that this move is for the purpose of freezing him out of his valuable property.

The commencement of the suit creates considerable uneasiness among the other manufacturing institutions which have been induced to locate here on promise of bonus, as much of this money is still unpaid and such as has been paid is likely to be recovered by the donors if this syndicate suit against Wetherald is successful.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Capture of an Insurance Swindler Who Has Operated Extensively.—BOSTON, January 29.—Upon a warrant secured by Fire Marshal Whitehead, inspectors this morning arrested John Lake on a charge of arson. Lake, who boarded at No. 2 Allegheny street, Roxbury, had his furniture and clothing stored at a short time ago in the Glen Falls Company for $300. On January 22 last, it is alleged, he set fire to his property in order to obtain the insurance thereon.

Lake is a smart, flashy fellow of apparently 30 years. Whitehead thinks he has been operating in Albany, Buffalo, New York, St. Louis, Chicago, Omaha, Indianapolis and Portland. In his testimony before the marshal Lake stated that he came from North Platte, Neb., where he was engaged in cattle raising. He will be arraigned to-morrow.

STRAIGHTENING TITLES.

The Triennial Assessment a Very Good Thing in More Ways Than One—Tax Liens Very Hard to Trace.

Whether Senator Newmyer's bill will or will not afford relief in the matter of tax liens, there is evidently a great necessity for a reform of some kind.

Mr. John Kelly, of William A. Herron & Sons, says the uncertainty resulting from the present chaos is such as to give real estate dealers much trouble. He cited case after case. For instance, some years ago, a man named Ogilvie bought four lots in Homestead. They were assessed in no many different names that it was impossible to find just where they stood, until they came to be sold for taxes. Said Mr. Kelly: "Half the taxes we pay are assessed to wrong names, as so many transfers are not registered. The assessors are not to blame, as they must go by the light they have. Sheriff's deeds may not be recorded anywhere except in the Probationary office. They may never reach the City Register's office, as to record them costs $2 25, and some people will not pay that to have them recorded."

"Then again trust estates are not recorded. In many cases also property is owned by a wife and assessed in the name of her husband, and vice versa, so that a lawyer cannot always trace title, no matter how painstaking or conscientious he may be. "There was a vast amount of trouble concerning some Forbes street property, and the trouble was to find what particular 20 feet had been released."

"The present triennial assessment is doing much to straighten matters out, owing to the excitement it occasions, awakening people to the necessity of knowing just where they stand."

Mr. Kelly referred to the municipal liens against property upon the Penn avenue act, stating that settlement was made with the City Attorney, but so far as he could find, there was no statement of it in the estimate of receipts in the financial budget. Controller Morrow explains that it is included in the $60,000 reported by the City Attorney. It comes in a lump. Should the receipts in the financial budget and the unusual scrutiny it provokes tend to the simplification of the taxing problem, the excess of valuation may not be an unmitigated evil.

The discussion on this bill to force the revival of tax liens every five years will not down, and some people insist that Mr. Lane has put himself on record as being entirely opposed to Secretary Bayard in this question, but this is not the first time the young New Yorker has been opposed to the mature publicist from Delaware, and the latter looks upon the antagonism of the former with a great deal of equanimity, believing that he knows better than Mr. Whitney the ground upon which he is treading, and that when all the facts are known, and all of the agreement between the United States and Germany and Great Britain brought to light, the public verdict will be in his favor.

FIGHTING FOR THE RECORDS.

Two Sets of Men Claim to Be Elected to the County Offices.

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 29.—W. J. Whipper, the regular Republican candidate for Probate Judge for Beaufort county in the election, was defeated by the colored Republican candidate on the fusion ticket. He and other defeated candidates contested the election, and carried the case before Judge Aldrich, who decided against them and advised them to surrender the records of the offices to the successful Whittier fusionists. Whipper and his confederates refused to obey the order, and were committed for contempt.

Whittier and Graham, the candidate for Coroner, have been lodged in jail. The other defeated candidates have avoided the service of the commitment. Whipper defiantly says he will stay in jail until the case has been decided by the highest court. Meantime the county citizens of Beaufort are in trouble, as they cannot get their money until the case is settled, and the fusionists have been surrendered to the proper custodian.

Distress After Eating

Is one of the many disagreeable symptoms of dyspepsia. Headache, heartburn, sour stomach, faintness and capricious appetite are also caused by this very widespread and growing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves headache, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following: "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or I did little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and food relieved and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

N. B. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists. Sixty for $1. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

RED-NOSE MIKE'S TRIAL.

It is Postponed at the Request of the Prisoner's Attorney.

WILKES-BARRE, January 29.—The case of Michael Rinzello, better known as "Red-Nose Mike," the self-confessed murderer of McClure and Flanagan, was called for trial in the Criminal Court here this morning. The prosecution announced that they were ready, but General McCartney, who was recently retained by Mike's Italian friends as counsel, asked for a continuance on the ground that he needed more time to prepare his case. The Court fixed Wednesday, February 6, for the trial.

They May Change the Course.

At a meeting of the Allegheny High School Committee last evening Mr. D. B. Oliver's resolution was considered. He recommended that the course be changed from two to three years. The committee decided to favorably report the resolution to the board at the next meeting.
