PSALM 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help
My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved he that keepeth thee will not slumber
Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep
The Lord is thy keeper the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand
The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil he shall preserve thy soul
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore

...the angels bore her
...the little George
...in a hand and love.

She is gone! The angels bore her
The little George
In a hand and love.

Mother, those dear little fingers
Now are touching harp of gold;
Sweetest music they are making
Of a love's untold.

See, there is no trace of illness
On thy little darling now,
And her sunny hair is falling
Like a halo o'er her brow.

Though the hours are sad and lonely,
And you miss each little hand,
Think of her among the angels
Over in fair Beulah land.

Yes, she's gone! But gone to heaven,
Where the many mansions lie,
And you may see her saying:
"I'll be with you, dear, soon."

Then by faith look up to Jesus,
Saying, "Lord, thy will be done."

And help me home with courage high
"God, give me

FALLS MILL SCHOOL

The first log structure of the school was built in the 1870's. Then a one room building, which was considered built an up-to-date school house. The last new school was built in 1936. Two students in 1921 were the champion speller for Braxton County, Eva (Gillispie) Barrett and Grey Bird, the penmanship champion.

Before the well was drilled, drinking water was carried from Alzina Casto's house. We had the pot belly stoves, took our lunch with us, and later up in the grades had hot lunch with Edith Teter as our cook. Later Ova Veith was the cook. Some of the students walked several miles to obtain an education. The students entering high school first went to Sutton High School; later, when the hardtop road was finished in the late twenties, they went to Burnsville. The main event of the year was the Christmas program, when the folding doors were opened and family and friends were present to see their children on stage, acting, reciting and singing the Christmas carols.

My teachers were while going to Falls Mill School, Clara Marple, Georgie Haymond, Edna Marie Exline, and Victor Berry, teacher and principal.

Our bus driver Sol Brown took the eighth grade class to Burnsville and we joined other students from the Salt Lick district to walk across the stage and get our diploma, our highlight.

The last teacher and principal at Falls Mill was Virginia (Prince) Robison and Virgil Stewart in 1968-1969. On April 15, 1969, the board decided to close the school and it was torn down. Submitted by: Eva Bull.
